

Spolek akademiků Židů

Pražský Prager
Literární Literatur
Dům Haus
autorů německého jazyka deutschsprachiger Autoren

The third Prague seminar of the Association of Jewish Academics

November 21, 2018
Czech Parliament, Sněmovní 1, Praha 1

The seminar is organized under the auspices of MP Miroslav Janulík and President of the Czech Academy of Sciences prof. RNDr. Eva Zažímalová, CSc.

Program:

14:30 Start of the Registration

15:00–16:30 First round table Jewish life in today's Europe

Keynote speaker:

Dr. Jonathan Boyd: Institute for Jewish Policy Research (UK)
„European Jewry and its challenges “

Panelists:

MUDr. Tomáš Stern, head of the Jewish community Bratislava (Slovakia)
Rabbi Manis Barash, Chabad Praha
David Maxa, rabbinical student of the Abraham Geiger College

16:30–17:00 coffee break

17:00–18:30 Second round table

Contemporary antisemitism and radicalisation of society in Europe

Keynote speaker:

David Toube, Director of Policy at Quilliam International (UK)
“Jews, the British Labour Party, and How We Fell Out”

Panelists:

Mgr. Martin Poliačik, Member of Parliament (Slovakia)
Dr. Matthias J. Becker, Moses Mendelssohn Center, University of Potsdam
(Germany)
Mgr. Zbyněk Tarant, Ph.D., University of West Bohemia

The Seminar is organized to commemorate the 80th anniversary of „Kristalnacht“ by the Association of Jewish Academics in cooperation with the Centre for the Study of the Holocaust and Jewish Literature at Charles University and with the support of the British Embassy in Prague and with the support of Prager Literaturhaus.

The Seminar takes place in English without translating. All participants must be registered. The e-mail address for the registration is kafka@mantlik.cz or mobile +420 737 507 533.